December 9 Quiz Reminders. The address, directions and the school parking map for Oakland Christian Schools in Rochester are on page 3. Come in the “entrance” marked on the map by the “elementary student loading” area.

The opening meeting will start at 12:00 noon. There will be a raffle drawing to award prizes to the quizzers who were selected as special quizmaster’s choice.

Please bring your quiz boxes and pads for back-ups.

Plan now for Chicago. In March, Detroit Bible Quizzing will put together teams of qualified quizzers to compete at the WBQA Chicago Tournament. To qualify, a quizzer must meet two requirements. The first requirement is to have a 20-point average as a veteran or a 10-point average as a rookie. This season the top five veterans and the top three rookies have already scored enough points to guarantee themselves the required average. The second requirement is to have a strong attendance record, meaning that you miss no more than one day of quizzing between October and February. You need to be at the March competition, since that has an extended format of six quizzes rather than the usual three. Plan now, and we’ll see you in Chicago.

Digging Deeper Into God’s Word: the chiasmus. The chiasmus is an ancient way of writing that presents words or concepts in a crosswise fashion. See <http://www.bible-discernments.com/joshua/whatisachiasm.html>. Recognizing chiasmic structure can be a big help in understanding a passage, but it also tends to be a mnemonic device that can help with memorization. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Chiasmic_structure. Here is a proposed chiasmic structure of 1 Corinthians 5:1-12. <http://www.chiasmusxchange.com/2016/09/23/1-corinthians-5-1-12/>. And here is a scholarly look at the chiasmic structure of 1 Corinthians 11:2-16. http://margmowczko.com/the-chiasm-in-1-corinthians-11_2-16/

Great Lakes Tournament. This Saturday, November 18, seven teams of DBQ quizzers will be traveling to Wayne to participate in the Great Lakes Open Tournament (its new name this year). For a little history on this tournament see the 2001 archived article on page 3 (don’t overlook in that article who was the November 2001 Varsity Quizzer of the Month). And that article leads nicely to the topic that follows.

Promotion. There are many new faces this season, and for each one there is someone to thank for getting them involved in Bible quizzing. Let’s keep up the good work of promoting quizzing throughout this season. See what you can do to get family, friends, acquaintances involved now. Get them to one of your practices or to a monthly quiz. Encourage, persuade or drag them (but be nice) into getting involved. ★

Tidbits

Honorable Mention. Three frozen chairs without error in a day of quizzing equals 210 points. When quizzers get that many points or more and yet don't make Quizzer of the Month, they deserve some recognition. In November, three quizzers attained this distinction:

Sophia Fike	260
Cordelia Fike	250
Jessica Matthews	240

Rookie Watch. A great part of quizzing is to see which rookies start off strong and which are able to catch on later and make a run for the top spot. 120 points was the top rookie score for November, and two achieved that: Marlena Munch and Maria Magro. Picking up their first scores ever were Annaliese Sanchez (in her first day of quizzing), Angelina Tringali and Destiny Lloyd. Make a point to encourage the rookies.

Rookie Nelson Glory (260 pts., 43.33 ave.) in action

November Quiz Highlights

OCS Strict Discipline–0, LP Stumbling Blocks–120, LP Team Corinth–60

In this, the first quiz of the day, the Lake Pointe teams were ranked 1 and 2 in the League and there was no hint of the big shuffling in the standings that would come later. Caleb Yonker and rookie teammate Nelson Glory both froze their chairs for Stumbling Blocks' solid win. Carmen Yonker froze her chair for Team Corinth's second place. Only two questions were left for the Oakland Christians Schools team to try, and they proved too difficult to result in a score. In the last quiz of the day however, Strict Discipline picked up its first win of the season (see below).

LP Stumbling Blocks

♥ Prepare for Battle–120, ♥ We Are Homeless–110, LP Stumbling Blocks–40

♥ Prepare for Battle

This was the one quiz of the day where more than 90 points was not enough to win; put another way, Homeless won their other two quizzes with 90 or fewer, but 110 was not enough in this one. Prepare for Battle must have an aversion to second place. Jessica Matthews scored first for the Homeless ones. Noel Alvarez quickly tied it up for the Battlers. Jessica claimed the next two for a frozen chair with bonus and was also next to score on a toss-up for a 70-point lead. But in just three questions it was tied again as Collin Gibson froze with a bonus. In on another toss-up, Jessica took the lead for the third time. Caleb Yonker got Lake Pointe on the board on question 12. Back in on another toss-up, Jessica couldn't come up with the answer and Collin got the freebie to pull within 10 points. On question 14, Noel scored again for the Battlers' first lead in the quiz, and that held up when Caleb got question 15 for his second score.

Marimont Believes–60, OCS Take the Prize–90, LP Fools for Christ–130

This quiz started with the teams scoring in spurts. Lake Pointe scored the first 90 points with a frozen chair plus bonus from Cordelia Fike and a score from rookie Erin Yonker. Oakland Schools notched the next 40 points as current top rookie Marlena Munch scored followed by first-time rookie Annaliese Sanchez. Marimont then cruised into second place with 60 points on three consecutive scores by rookie Maria Magro. OCS took second back as rookie Angelina Tringali got her first score ever, giving the team a bonus for three quizzers jumping (the bonus also moved the team up one rank to 7th). With its lead in jeopardy, LP responded with another score by Erin and a toss-up won by Cordelia. On question 15, Marlena scored to preserve second place for OCS.

♥ We Are Homeless–90, LP Team Corinth–60, Marimont Hopes–80

Jessica Matthews garnered the first three scores to freeze her chair with a bonus and a 70-point Heart lead. Noah Trevino scored twice for Marimont to pull within 30 points. Rookie Kayla Miller pushed the Heart lead out to 50 before Noah scored again, freezing his chair. Carmen Yonker got Lake Pointe on the board. Question 13 started with the score 90–20–60. Lydia Hatfield scored to pull Marimont within 10 points and lock up at least second place. Carmen got both of the last two questions to freeze her chair and close out the quiz.

OCS Runners Run–50, OCS Strict Discipline–60, ♥ Prepare for Battle–20

The first two scores went to Runner Matthew Magro. Then Matthew Colletti got Strict Discipline on the board. Collin Gibson scored and added a freebie to move Heart into second. Matthew Magro responded to freeze his chair and push the Runners' lead out to 30 points. The Disciplined Jordan Johnson scored to retake second. With two questions to go, the score was 60–40–30, and it was anyone's quiz. After 14 was passed, every team was jumping on 15 for placings or the win. Heart tried first in a bid for second, but fell short. Then the Runner's tried, avoiding the possibility of the Disciplined ones picking up a team bonus. A free question offered Discipline a chance to tie for the lead, but their attempt was not enough. With all teams again jumping, Matthew Colletti got 16 for the win. ☆

November 2001

One?...Two?...Three? How many quiz events did you make it to in the last four weeks? How about the October 27 Shenango Valley Kickoff Tournament? Oh, you didn't even hear about that one?

For all of you there was the November 10 Local Quiz #2 competition. And there were more of you this month than last, with new teams on the block AKA DAWG in Varsity and Cornerstone X in JV. AKA DAWG's Kelly Garbarino promptly grabbed the lead for top varsity rookie. And heading the division leader boards for a second month in a row are KPuff in Varsity and Leap of Faith in JV, both undefeated and with 70 out of a potential 72 olympic points. But there are plenty of other teams in easy striking distance, making for what is obviously going to be a very exciting season.

Speaking of more teams, how about 71 teams at the November 17 Great Lakes Regional Tournament! WOW! You know what this means? DBQ has just hosted the largest tournament in the history of World Bible Quizzing Association sponsored tournaments (the prior record was 67 teams at Chicago 2000). Congratulations to all who participated, and thanks to all the volunteers. But due to deadlines, the details will have to wait till the next issue.

December 9, 2017 Quiz

Oakland Christian School
Auburn Hills Campus
3075 Shimmons Road
Auburn Hills, MI 48326
(248) 373-2700

Check your map or use your GPS for this one unless you are familiar with the local roads. If you are near to or south of M-59, that provides an easy route: exit at N. Squirrel Road (Exit 41B), head north just over 3 miles (about 3/4 mile north of Walton), turn left (west) on Shimmons and proceed 1/2 mile to the school.

Follow the direction arrows coming in the main entrance, but you can carefully ignore arrows if you want when leaving (the parking lot will not be full up like during school). The parking areas along the east side of the school should be sufficient for our needs.
