DBQ Dominant in Post Season

DBQ Varsity and JV Champs at Chicago 2006

Both the Varsity and JV Finals featured blow-out victories for DBQ teams. In Varsity, DBQ Broken Off was paced to its win by top quizzier Rachel Schatz with strong performances by Laura Wunningham and Caleb Leidy. In JV, top quizzier Graham Wojtas quizzed out and Josh Kauzlarich added 60 points to power DBQ Tame the Tongue into first place. Showing DBQ's depth this year, in both divisions the third-place DBQ team quizzed into the Finals at the expense of yet another DBQ team that had to settle for fourth.

In Little League, the DBQ Misty Girls took second, the best performance yet for a DBQ team.

DBQ Champions of the WBQA "World" Finals

Three teams from DBQ made it to the WBQA Finals Tournament, with each of the quizzers having quoted all of Romans and James in under an hour and a half to qualify. See page 3 for the quizzers' own views on the "World" experience.

All the hard work paid off as everyone put in great performances, but what DBQ Slow to Speak accomplished both as a team and individually was simply awesome. To celebrate their achievements, there will be a party immediately following the October quiz from 3:00 - 5:00 p.m. Don't miss it.

Dear possible World quizzer . . .

World is the climax of everything you've crammed for. It can be summed up in one word: AMAZING. The people at World are united by one thing: our love of Jesus Christ and memorizing His Scriptures.

It's my opinion that the quizzers are the best part of World. You can make friends from all over the US, from Washington State to Maine. The special atmosphere created by quizzers is best identified in our free time. For example, when we were playing Ultimate Frisbee, there were encouragements galore! Another example happened Friday night. About twenty of us gathered with three guitars, two violins, two flutes, a couple shakers and voices and worshiped God. This was great because it was in our free time. No one told us to. We wanted to.

During the tournament, you participate in more quizzes than you're probably used to. Thursday and Friday are preliminary rounds; Saturday is the play-offs and finals. It seems like a lot at first, but it gets better as you get used to the flow. The pace is also different from regular quiz meets. It's faster and more intense. Don't let that fluster you. Just study, focus, and you'll get your jumps.

So, you ready to go? Sweet. World is an amazing opportunity to have fun, meet people, and memorize God's word. It's a great time to build your relationship with Him and with others. It's definitely worth the studying time. It's definitely a great event to look forward to from year to year. Go for it! See you there next year!

Your fellow quizzer,

Nina Darcie

"World" was, by far, the best quizzing experience I have ever had. It was actually the first time that I wasn't on a team with Graham Wojtas (whom I wish could have gone). I realized that there is a BIG difference from quizzing at the Junior Varsity level and than quizzing at the World level, but it was good for me.

Tom Harmon was our speaker for the tournament and he did an amazing job! He talked about "how God gives us more grace" (James 4:8). I really never thought about that verse, until he spoke about it.

The quizzing itself was really surprising (for me anyway). Quizzers were jumping second word and getting it right—it was crazy. What was also cool about World was that I made new friends and everybody was really nice. And also seeing all those people who have God's word stored up in their hearts was also really cool

Romans and James have taught me a lot of things over the past year, like not to pass judgement on one another (Romans 2 & 14), or not to repay anyone evil for evil but to do what is right (Romans 12), or also to watch what you say or what comes out of your mouth (James 3). For me, to quote the books of Romans and James was a big accomplishment.

I had a blast at World, and I'm going to start studying A.S.A.P. so that I will be able to go again next year!

Josh Kauzlarich

I know that I speak for everyone when I say that the World Bible Quizzing "World Finals" Tournament was an amazing experience. Not only was there great quizzing, but World was a place where you grow in your relationship with God.

At World you meet so many people from all over the place! Some even came from as far as Washington State! Wow! With so many people, a whole lot of friendships blossom very quickly, and I'm sure that these people will be my friends for life, no matter how many states away they are!

Mr. Harmon, our speaker this year, was amazing! He put his messages so simply and yet was able to keep them full of depth and meaning. He was so much fun to listen to, and he showed a genuine, energetic love of God's Word.

I thank God for the opportunity to go to World. I truly believe that it's something that all quizzers should strive to do, even if it's only once. Believe me when I say that the experiences you have are unforgettable!

I can't wait until I get to quiz with you all again! Acts, here I come!

Love in Christ!

Sarah Scrivner
