Are you ready for Chicago 2007?

Twelve quizzes done, nine to go. At the end, if you have missed no more than one day of quizzing (three quizzes), have quizzed the preliminary quizzes at the March Tournament and have a 20-point average for veterans/10-point average for rookies, you are eligible to attend the Chicago Tournament on a DBQ team.

Preregistration for Chicago 2007 will occur at the February competition. The information you provide will assist the selection committees in getting started on putting together the Varsity and JV teams so that teams can be completed as soon as possible after the March Tournament. Little League teams will be church-based.

If you don't yet have the points you need to qualify for Chicago 2007, set some study and memorization goals and plan how to obtain them now so you can be part of this great quizzing experience. •

Varsity and top JVers, are you thinking about World Finals?

As great as the Chicago tournament is, the pinnacle of Bible quizzing has to be the WBQA Finals each summer. This tournament occurs over several days. It is for Varsity quizzers and the top handful of JV quizzers who will be quizzing Varsity next year. Can DBQ repeat as World Finals Champions? You may be the one to make the difference.

Qualification for a DBQ team means quoting the entire book of Acts—fortunately not all at once, though. If the World Finals tournament sounds at all interesting to you, why not use it as an extra motivation to help with your studying now. •

Tidbits

Honorable Mention. Three frozen chairs without error in a day of quizzing equals 210 points. When quizzers get that many points or more and yet don't make Quizzer of the Month, they deserve some recognition. Here is January's list:

Justin Graff 260 Varsity — Nina Darcie 230 JV — Alicia Romano 230 Graham Wojtas 210 LL — Nicholas Skelton 220 Congrats for some great quizzing.

First-Time Scorers. After three months of effort without a positivepayoff on the score sheet, a number of rookies finally got points in their third month of quizzing:

> JV — Adam Kausch Zach Mayfield Anna Cumming

Meanwhile, some other quizzers with past experience also got their first scores of this season: Josh Leidy and Alex Webb in Varsity, and Rachel Petruska in JV. No doubt many more points will follow.

Memory Tip of the Month. When reviewing previously learned material, mix in some new material to learn as well. Apparently, this boosts the brain's dopamine level, which increases motivation and helps memorizing, http: //www.smart-kit.com/s118/student-study-tip-toimprove-your-memory/

Haiku of the Month.

Apostles Paul and Barnabas preached the word.

Holiday Quizzing (Cookie) Tournament results

Enough DBQ Quizzers were interested in tournament quizzing over the holiday that there was one team in each division: DBQ Looked Up in Varsity, DBQ Get Up in JV and DBQ Stirred Up in Little League. The JV team took first place as Graham Wojtas took the individual top spot, closely followed by Tim Hoffman in second, and Anthony Shaw rounded things out for the team with a solid 11th place. On the Little League team, Sarah Hoffman placed third individually. •

OC Just RelActs

CP Hard to Kick – 40; FC Purple Xscape – 100; CP Start a Revolt – 90

up question 8 for CP Hard to Kick. Then Lisa Keeney and Ben Idoni put 40 points up to start a revolt. Ellie Kitchen shot back for the Cornerstone rivals and made the score 40-80-40.
