Day of Champions Tournament

Heart Holds on to First in Varsity

Though comfortably in first place in the team standings, Heart ended its regular season with only its second loss, and both were to Leading Laughter. That portended a close match in the Varsity Finals.

Top quizzier Nicholas Skelton gave Heart the early lead, freezing his chair without error with jumps on questions 1, 2 and 4. Dream team captain Sarah Rominske quickly tied it up for Laughter, freezing her chair without error with jumps on questions 3, 5 and 6.

Nicholas gave Heart the lead again on a toss-up following a Northridge error. Gabrielle Baut scored for Leading Laughter to tie it up again.

Rachel Weidner responded to put Heart back in the lead. With a chance to lock up the victory, Heart's rookie, Dale Martin, went for it on the next question but came up short. Sarah got the toss-up to pull Laughter back into a tie with one question left.

Jared Elmers closed out regulation with a 20-pointer to add to an earlier freebie for Northridge, and the tie-breaker began. Laughter's rookie, Nate Conner, took his turn at giving his team the victory; when that fell short, Nicholas answered the freebie for Heart to claim the Varsity championship.

Taming the Tongue New LL Champs

Both Northridge and Christ Community had time in first place during the season and the Tongue had the best record in the March prelims, so each team had a strong stake in winning the Little League Finals.

Top rookie and quizzier Nathan Dempster immediately put Northridge on the board. Owen Parker tied it up for Christ Community, but Nathan responded to put Northridge back in front.

Sam Hatfield got question 6 to put the Tongue in the mix and, when Deven Dorie got a freebie, Tongue were all alone in second. Owen scored again to vault the Slaves past the Tongue and back into a share of the lead. Deven then got his first 20-pointer to move the Tongue into the front for the first time.

At 40-40-50, question 15 could go to any of the three teams for the championship. In with the lead, the Tongue got the jump but not the answer. The toss-up was passed as no one wanted to take a stab at quoting a verse just from its reference. Now at 40-40-40, Deven got question 16 and answered it correctly for the Little League championship.

On the tiebreaker for second, Owen froze without error for the bonus high score.

DBQ Rocks Chicago 2014

Six teams: two in each division. Five of the six made it into the Finals. The two in Varsity took the top two spots, as did the two in JV. The Little League team came in at third and held its spot. What a great way to cap off the season. Talk about going out with a bang!

Varsity

In Varsity, DBQ No Excuses dominated the morning session, the only team in any division to remain undefeated. Meanwhile, DBQ Burning Coals started with four seconds and a third before finally getting a win in its last quiz of the prelims, good for 5th place. That win carried over into the playoffs, however, and the Coals topped the 3rd and 4th place teams, and then the 1st and 2nd place teams to quiz first into the Finals. No Excuses quickly recouped from that one loss and quizzed next into the Finals, to be joined by the 4th place Future Glory.

The Coals got the first jump in the Finals, but their hot streak was over. On the toss-up, Gabriella Baut put No Excuses on the board first. Julia Mayer added two more scores for No Excuses before Nicholas Skelton finally scored for Coals on question 10. Tournament top quizzier Sarah Rominske then swung into action, scoring a 20 for a team bonus, followed by a freebie and another 20 to extend the lead to 100 points.

The Coals needed to get the remaining four questions and pick up two bonuses in that stretch—a very tall order. Jordan Hatfield got question 17 to keep hope alive. However, Future Glory nixed any further thoughts of a Coals comeback by taking question 18 to finally get on the board. The championship belonged to No Excuses at that point.

Future Glory had its sights on second place and got the jump on question 19 as well, but came up short on the answer. Jordan got the toss-up to lock up second place for the Coals.

With all places decided going into question 20, it cost nothing to still try for the question, and errors by Future Glory and Burning Coals led to a freebie taken by Jessica Matthews to close out the Varsity Finals.

DBQ No Excuses – 130, DBQ Burning Coals – 50, OBQA Future Glory – 0

Junior Varsity

In JV, DBQ Rock of Offense finished the morning session in second place with a 4-2-0 record. DBQ More Than Conquerors was in fourth, with a 2-4-0 record. The Conquerors got a hot streak going in the playoffs though, winning two quizzes in a row to land first in the Finals, followed by Rock and the third-place Word Girls.

Mike Dempster scored first for Rock, followed by tournament top quizzier Gloria Mayer for Conquerors. Word Girls scored to tie it up. Mike scored again, followed by Grant Mayer for Conquerors. Word Girls tried again for a three-way tie, but after erring there was no score on the toss-up.

Gloria scored for a Conquerors lead, a couple freebies to Word Girls kept them in the hunt, and Mike's third score got Rock back into a share of the lead. With three questions to go, the score was 60-60-40.

Lydia Hatfield got question 18 for a team bonus and a 30-point lead for the Conquerors. Rock now needed to get both remaining questions. Melody Mayer got the first one to keep Rock's dream alive. Now the score was 80-90-40 going into question 20. The Conquerors got the jump but not the answer and Mike got his quiz-out on the toss-up to claim the championship for Rock. What a quiz!

DBQ Rock of Offense – 100, DBQ More Than Conquerors – 80, OBQA Word Girls – 40

Little League

Kudos to Obedient Tongues, who broke a streak of four years without a DBQ team making it into the Little League Finals. After finishing the prelims in third place, the Tongues were second into the Finals.

Half-way through, the score was 0-90-50. Micah Gendich then got the Tongues on the board with a freebie. A late error took that score away, but Deven Dorie got them back on the board with 20 on question 19A. The score was then 20-70-90. Bible Warriors sealed the victory on 20.
