Cornerstone Survives 19-Question Quiz, Claims Varsity Championship

CEPC Greatly Annoyed’s position fluctuated throughout the year in the standings, and they finished the regular season in 4th place. They fought their way up into the finals against Heart--decked out in plaid in support of Paul Paternoster, who coached Heart to the 2014 championship--and Lake Pointe, which had been champs in 2013. Cornerstone sought its first varsity championship in seven years.

After question 1 was passed, CEPC’s Andrew Hubbard started things off with a 20-pointer on question 2. LP’s Julia Mayer took question 4, but Andrew quickly responded by taking #5. After a series of errors and passed questions, Jessica Matthews got a free question #10 to put Heart in the mix, making it 20-40-10.

Trailing with five questions left in the season, Grant Mayer stepped it up with jumps on #11, #12 and #13. #11 he answered correctly, but #12 he erred, allowing Gabrielle Baut to take #12A and regain the lead for a moment. Grant then answered #13 correctly, tying things up at 60-60-10.

Heart needed the next two questions to win, and after a valiant attempt by Jessica on #14 that fell short, it became a battle between Cornerstone and Lake Pointe. Julia got #14A to give Lake Pointe its first lead. Still needing to lock up the quiz, Julia jumped again on #15, with error points in effect but erred. No one answered #15A, and the quiz went into #16 with Lake Pointe ahead 70-60-10, but the quiz needed to end on a correct question.

As #16 was passed, Lake Pointe kept plugging away, erring on #17 and then #19 after #17A and #18 were passed. Finally, Andrew Hubbard answered #19A to claim the varsity championship.

LP Get Up Quickly - 50; CEPC Greatly Annoyed - 80; Heart Pangs of Death - 10

Meadowbrook Wins Little League In Two Straight

Since there were four teams in Little League this year, there were no playoffs--the top three teams (MCC Dark Sun, LP Kingdom of God, and Blood, Fire and Vapor) went straight to the finals. To make things a little more interesting, the finals were conducted in a best-2-out-of-4 format. The first team to win two quizzes would be the champions.

In the first quiz, Nathan Mayer and Cordelia Fike scored right away to put Lake Pointe up 40. Sam Hatfield--quizzing alone this month--got on the board as well. Owen Parker then proceeded to score 90 unanswered points for Meadowbrook. That was all they needed, as five team errors dropped Lake Pointe to 20 before Nathan got the last question to restore the score to 40-90-20.

LP Kingdom of God - 40; MCC Dark Sun - 90; Blood, Fire and Vapor - 20

Quiz #2 got off to a slower start, with rookie Curtis Parker kicking off the scoring on #3 with a freebie. Nathan scored on #4, and the next points came on #8, a freebie for Owen. The score remained at 0-20-20 until question 13, when Owen pulled Meadowbrook ahead with a 20-pointer. Owen also got #14 to seal the win and the championship for Meadowbrook. After #15 and #16 were passed, Nathan took #17 to secure second place for Lake Pointe.

Blood, Fire and Vapor - 0; MCC Dark Sun - 60; LP Kingdom of God - 40

Version Change

The WBQA has decided to return to using the 1984 New International Version for the 2015-16 quiz season. As such, DBQ will also be using the 1984 NIV for the upcoming year.

What you need to know ...

- Quiz portions will be available for FREE. Contact a board member for info on how to order them.
- For those of you who like to study online, the 1984 NIV is currently (as of April) online at www.biblestudytools.com.
- This is a picture of Pittsburgh. We don't live here. You don't actually need to know this.

Chicago 2015 Tournament

Varsity repeats as champs at Chicago

HV The Witnesses – 60 DBQ Lions– 120 DBQ Red Wings – 80

The NFL's Lions may have never seen a Super Bowl, but DBQ Lions (local top quizzers Gloria Mayer, Andrew Hubbard, and Ron Mahan) were crowned the Varsity champions at this year's tournament. DBQ Red Wings (Julia Mayer, Jessica Matthews, and Jordan Hatfield) came in a close second. After some close playoff quizzes, DBQ Tigers (Chicago top quizzers Melody Mayer, Danielle Leidy and Klirissa McCulloch) emerged in seventh place.

The finals got off to a slow start, with errors on questions 1 and 2. The Lions' Andrew Hubbard scored the first 10 points on #3. The first 20-pointer went to Julia Mayer. Long-time veteran Brian Robey of Huron Valley picked up #7, and after another passed question on #8, Julia got #9 to make it 40-10-20.

Without a jump to this point, the Lions proceeded to score on four of the next five questions for 80 unanswered points. Huron Valley scored on #16 and #17 to pull within 30, but Gloria Mayer quizzed out without error on #18 to seal the win for the Lions.

JV takes 2nd place

God's Voice – 100 DBQ Pistons – 70 Harrisburg BiC – 30

DBQ Pistons (Grant Mayer, Caleb Yonker, Sophia Fike, and Lydia Hatfield) finished a close second in the JV division. The Pistons, propelled by the efforts of all-stars Grant Mayer and Caleb Yonker, were atop the JV division for the whole day, narrowly coming out on top of the preliminaries and earning a bye into the finals. Once there, they went up against God's Voice (OBQA) and Harrisburg BiC.

The teams were neck-and-neck for the first several questions. After Caleb scored on question 7, the score was 20-20-20. Ohio got question 8 and a free question 11, and Harrisburg got question 12, but before their opponents could pull away, Caleb took question 13 to make it 50-40-40. Ohio took #14 for a three-person bonus and a 40-point lead, but Grant made a gutsy jump on #16--with error points now in effect--to cut the lead in half. Ohio responded with #18 to make it 100-60-40. Grant made a valiant attempt on #19, when Detroit needed the next two to tie. An error locked up first place for Ohio, Grant took #21 to seal second place for the Pistons.

Little League takes 4th place

DBQ Mud Hens (Owen Parker, Nathan Mayer, Cordelia Fike, Carmen Yonker, Sam Hatfield, Patrick King) competed in a very tough five-team Little League division. The jumping speed came as somewhat of a surprise to many, resembling the three- and four-syllable varsity-pace jumps of a decade ago. Detroit did their best to adjust, and did manage to walk away with fourth place. Ohio's Appointed Apostles ultimately came away with the victory in the finals, but Detroit did take home one trophy: Owen Parker placed 5th individually with a 25.00 average.
