All Timers Tournament Recap.

Five teams from Pennsylvania came to compete with 16 teams from southeastern Michigan for the 8th Annual All Timers Tournament. After a full day of quizzing, Beauty & the Beards and Our Struggle is Real again met in the Finals, with Beauty & the Beards getting the edge for their repeat championship. A good time was had by all. See page 5 for more coverage of this unique and fun tournament.

February 13 Quiz Reminders.

The campus map for Oakland Christian School, in Auburn Hills, is on page 3. There will be some snacks set out, but plan your own lunch.

The opening meeting will start at noon. There will be a raffle drawing to award prizes to the quizzers who froze their chairs in December.

Please bring your quiz boxes and pads.

Chicago Tournament Preview. The number of quizzers eligible for Chicago based on points/average continues to climb. There are still nine more quizzes to get your average where it needs to be if you're not there yet. Remember, there is also an attendance requirement, so plan on making it to all the remaining quizzes. Ask a member of the Steering Committee if you have any questions.

There will be pre-registration forms at the February quiz. Quizzers, coaches, quizmasters and parents are all asked to fill these out to let the Steering Committee know whether you are a yes, maybe or no for the Chicago tournament. ★

Tidbits

Honorable Mention. Three frozen chairs without error in a day of quizzing equals 210 points. When quizzers get that many points or more and yet don't make Quizzer of the Month, they deserve some recognition. In January, the following quizzers met that criterion:

Varsity	Jessica Matthews	240
JV	Sophia Fike	230

Rookie Watch. A great part of quizzing is to see which rookies start off strong and which are able to catch on later and make a run for the top spot. This month, four rookies scored 100 points or more—in JV, Benjamin Hubbard and Olivia Colletti; in Varsity, Noah Trevino and Ari Hassenzahl. Meanwhile, Varsity rookie Emily Sefcheck scored her first points ever. Make a point to encourage the rookies.

2016 WBQA FINALS

After several years absence, the "Worlds" Tournament is returning on May 28, 2016—this time at the Kalahari in Sandusky, Ohio. For info, see <http://www.wbqa.org/#!/finals/cods>. Anyone interested in attending, e-mail Cindy Hatfield or contact any other member of the Steering Committee.

STEERING COMMITTEE

The DBQ Steering Committee will be meeting at 7:00 p.m. on February 15, 2016 by telephone conference. Participating churches are welcome to have a representative join in.

Varsity Quiz Highlights

CEPC Wall of Hostility—40, ♥ Mark My Words!—90, MCCovenant—60

Heart's Jordan Hatfield took half of the first six questions to freeze without error. The only other positive score in that run was by rookie Noah Trevino to put Marimont on the board. Subsequently, Ronald Mahan scored for Cornerstone. Lydia Hatfield extended Heart's lead to 70 with four questions left. When question 12 was passed by all, the focus turned to second place. Andrew Hubbard got the next two scores, a 20-pointer and a freebie, to give Cornerstone a secure 30-point hold on second as question 15 was starting. But an attempt for a third-person jumping bonus fell short, and Noah came up clutch on the toss-up to pull Marimont into a tie for second. On the first tie-breaker question, rookie Ari Hassenzahl got the jump and the answer to give Marimont a last-gasp run to second.

coaches and quizzers ... must be All Timers

MCCovenant—90, LP Galephippians—60

In this two-way quiz, these teams were about as evenly matched as could be. Grant Mayer scored first to put Lake Pointe on the board. Rookie Noah Trevino tied it up. Grant scored again, but so did Noah to tie it up again. Marimont got its first lead with a score by rookie Ari Hassenzahl. Lake Pointe's Gloria Mayer tied it up. Question 14: a Lake Pointe error opened the door for a slim Marimont lead as Noah got the freebie. Still, whoever got question 15 would win. Marimont got the jump but not the answer, but lived to see another question as Lake Pointe failed to come up with the freebie. Tied on 16, Noah got the jump for a frozen-chair-without-error bonus and the win.

♥ Mark My Words!—120, ♥ I Fear for You—130, MB Guardians—0

Words! got the early lead with Jordan and Lydia Hatfield taking the first two questions. Fear for You tied it up with two in a row from Michael Pappas. Jordan got the lead back on her second jump.

MB Guardians

Michael took the lead for the first time with his third jump, freezing without error. Jordan took it back again with her third jump, also freezing without error. With back-to-back scores, Jessica Matthews tied it up and moved Fear for You into the lead again. Down 20 with two questions to go, Words! couldn't let Fear for You score again and bravely went for it but erred. Jessica got the toss-up to freeze her chair and seal the win. On the last question, rookie Raine O'Ryan got the jump and the answer to give Words! a third-person bonus and make the final score oh-so-close. ★

Junior Varsity Quiz Highlights

CEPC Sword of the Spirit–50, MB One in Spirit–70, LP Wholeheartedly Wise–120

Meadowbrook's Owen Parker scored first, followed by Lake Pointe's Sophia Fike and Cornerstone's rookie Benjamin Hubbard. In the next round, Lake Pointe's Caleb Yonker scored, followed by Owen again and his rookie teammate Mari Hampshire, and then Cornerstone's David Hubbard. In the third round, Lake Pointe's pair each scored, followed by Owen freezing his chair, and Cornerstone had no answer. Starting question 13, the score was 40–80–80. Sophia froze without error for a 30-point lead. Then Benjamin pulled Cornerstone within 20 points of second. So question 15 started with all three places up for grabs. Meadowbrook needed a third-person jumping bonus for a shot at first and went for it, but came up short on the answer. Now Cornerstone could jump into second and went for it, but also came up short. Caleb answered the freebie to end the quiz, and his team remains undefeated.

CEPC Sword of the Spirit

OCSshield–110, ♥ of the Sword–40, CEPC Sword of the Spirit–60

Rookie Olivia Colletti got things started for OCSshield and they never looked back as fellow rookie

OCSshield

Carrissa Johnson was next to score. Micah Gendich got Heart on the board and rookie Benjamin Hubbard soon followed for Cornerstone. But the next three scores were all Olivia, freezing her chair on the second and getting back in on a toss-up for the third. That locked up the victory with three questions to go. Heart took over sole possession of second on Micah's second score, but Cornerstone tied it up again on Benjamin's second score. Benjamin also got the jump on question 15 to freeze his chair and claim second place for Cornerstone. 🌟

Check your map or use your GPS for this one unless you are familiar with the local roads. If you are near to or south of M-59, that provides an easy route: exit at N. Squirrel Road (Exit 41B), head north just over 3 miles (about 3/4 mile north of Walton), turn left (west) on Shimmons and proceed 1/2 mile to the school.

Follow the direction arrows coming in the main entrance, but you can carefully ignore arrows if you want when leaving (the parking lot will not be full up like during school). The parking areas along the east side of the school should be sufficient for our needs.

All Timers Tournament

DBQ held the 8th Annual All Timers Tournament on January 16 and it was a resounding success.

8

Eight years is, of course, a significant number in Bible quizzing—it marks the completion of the quiz material cycle. In other words, next year we will start the cycle all over again with the gospel of Luke.

This year marks the first time that All Timers is an official World Bible Quiz Association tournament. In prior years, WBQA has been gracious and allowed the tournament to be listed on its web site, but now WBQA is actively promoting it. It was fitting that two of the current WBQA officers, Rick Morgan and John Isett, came to quiz from Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

And the size of the tournament swelled this year. For the first seven years, it averaged 13 teams. This year, DBQ alone fielded that many, with three from Huron Valley Quizzing, four from Susquehanna Valley Bible Quizzing and one from Pittsburgh Bible Quizzing. People were hard pressed to remember the last time they had been at any tournament with 21 teams in one division.

So what is the appeal of All Timers? For some it is like a 30-year quizzing reunion, quizzing once again in the once-ubiquitous Youth for Christ Bible quizzing style. People who are now long-time coaches or quizmasters or WBQA officers can relive their glory days when a Youth for Christ tournament was the highlight of the year. Indeed, back then, quizzing was covered in traditional news media. See this clipping from the Religion page of the Washington, PA Observer-Reporter dated August 6, 1983, featuring one of this year's attendees:

SWAP Captures Honors

In recent Youth for Christ Eastern Area Bible Quiz competition held at Ocean City, New Jersey, South West Area Pennsylvania (SWAP) continued their winning tradition by capturing both the gold and silver medals. This marks the second year in a row that SWAP has been able to capture top honors at the tournament.

SWAP, based in Washington, is comprised of teenagers from the Washington, Waynesburg, Mon-Valley and Pittsburgh area. For the past eight months these teens have been studying the books of Galatians, Ephesians, Philippians and Colossians.

In addition to top honors, John Isett was sited as the top quizzer of the tournament for the second year in a row. Isett, Becky Gass and Judy Morgan were chosen members of the honorary all star team. Bob Gregg served as quizmaster.

Following their victory at Ocean City, the team of Isett, Morgan, Brian Smith and Dave Murphy went to Anderson, Ind. for the World Bible Quiz National Invitational where they place fifth out of 29 teams. Isett was named second best quizzer. They were coached by Janet and Steve Mizwa.

The local quiz program will resume in September based on the books of Romans and James. This competition is open to any high school student. For more information contact the Campus Life office.

For others, it is more like a 10- to 15-year reunion. For example, current DBQ coaches Mike Peterson and Jon Graff got to know each other quizzing against each other as teenagers, but have been teammates at All Timers the last two years and made it into the Finals on both occasions. Pick Mike and Jon out of the line-up of JV All Stars at Chicago 2000:

For current DBQ quizzers, All Timers, coming one week after the January quiz, provides a timely mid-season tournament experience that meshes with the local quiz schedule. As a matter of practice, the tournament material is the last chapter from December, the fresh January chapters, and one new chapter for February. When the playoffs in March roll around and the jumping speed inevitably picks up, those who have been through All Timers have extra experience with dealing with fast jumping. This year, 12 current DBQ quizzers participated in All Timers. For them, the Youth for Christ style is a novelty experience.

Besides former and current quizzers, All Timers is also a place for first-timers. Some get their very first quiz experience here whether young or old. On the young side, Cordelia Fike quizzed at All Timers a couple years ago before she started quizzing in Little League. On the older side, a friend of a mom of a Heart quizzer had never even seen a quiz before but came and quizzed at All Timers and hopes to return next year. She and others got "Old Dogs, New Tricks" awards.

Those awards bring up another aspect of All Timers. Being a free tournament, there are no fancy trophies. The official awards are instead paper certificates, and besides the serious ones sometimes there are fun ones. In addition to those, our partner and hospital register

host, Mona Blair of CrossPointe Church, is always full of surprise awards to pass out, this year being of the candy and recycled trophy variety. And yes, Mona is the long-time Little League quizmaster at the Great Lakes and Chicago tournaments sometimes known as “the chicken lady” because she has everyone do the chicken dance to celebrate Little League quizzers freezing their chairs, and yes she does that with any-age quizzers at All Timers.

One of the challenges in putting on All Timers this year was finding quizmasters for seven rooms, because some of our regular quizmasters, like Matt Gutowsky and Nate Parker, were unavailable for the reason that they were quizzing in the tournament. And Nate made top quizzer, not for the first time either. Here are the All Stars (Sophia Fike is missing but would have been to the right of Jessica Matthews in the back row), not only the 16 who received “official” certificates but those who got candy as well:

For full team and individual rankings, download the 2016 All Timers Master Statistics file from http://bq1.net/Bible Quizzing/statistics/All Time Stats/.

A big thank you to everyone who put in time and effort to make this awesome tournament happen.
