December 8 ELEVATE Practice. Due to the Rochester Christmas Parade closing roads in the area, Heart will host the second ELEVATE Practice—for all DBQ quizzers—at Marimont Community Church in Pontiac (see page 3 map). Start time is 1:30 p.m. with a pizza lunch, followed by instruction, interaction and practice of various aspects of quizzing. End time is 3:30 p.m.

December 14 Quiz Reminders. The December quiz will also be at Marimont Community Church. There may be snacks set out, but there will not be lunch concessions, so plan your lunch accordingly.

The opening meeting will start at 12:00 noon. There will be a "quizmaster's choice" raffle drawing to award prizes to the quizzers who were selected.

Please bring your quiz boxes and pads.

Great Lakes Tournament. On Saturday, November 16, three teams of DBQ quizzers traveled to Wayne to participate in the Great Lakes Open Tournament. A good time was had by all, and many trophies were brought home. See page 4 for a more complete report.

All Timers Tournament. The next optional tournament on the quizzing calendar is the All Timers Tournament on January 18, one week after the local January quiz. Like the Great Lakes Tournament, the All Timers Tournament will be close by at CrossPointe Community Church in Wayne. All Timers is a great tournament experience—any quizzers who go get some great preparation for competing in the March Day of Champions Tournament and then the Chicago Tournament. See page 5 flyer

Plan now for Chicago. In March, Detroit Bible Quizzing will put together teams of qualified quizzers to compete at the WBQA Chicago Tournament, now recognized as the World Championship. To qualify, a quizzer must meet two requirements. The first requirement is to have a 20-point average as a veteran or a 10-point average as a rookie. This season, five veterans have already scored enough points (420+) to guarantee themselves the required average. The second requirement is to have a strong attendance record, meaning that you miss no more than one day of quizzing between October and February. You need to be at the March competition, since that has an extended format of six quizzes rather than the usual three. Plan now, and we'll see you in Chicago.

Promotion. There are many new faces this season, and for each one there is someone to thank for getting them involved in Bible quizzing. Let's keep up the good work of promoting quizzing throughout this season. See what you can do to get family, friends, acquaintances involved now. Get them to one of your practices or to a monthly quiz. Encourage, persuade or drag them (but be nice) into getting involved. ✪

Tidbits

Honorable Mention. Once frozen, there is no guarantee that a quizzer will have an opportunity to jump and score again. Three frozen chairs without error in a day of quizzing equals 210 points. When quizzers get that many points or more and yet don't make Quizzer of the Month, they deserve some recognition. In November, two quizzers attained this distinction:

Sophia Fike	290
Kaleb Caron-Martin	220

Rookie Watch. A great part of quizzing is to see which rookies start off strong and which are able to catch on later and make a run for the top spot. In November half of the six rookies got their first scores: Rebekah Catanzaro, Adeline Sanchez and Ashton Brown. Make a point to encourage the rookies.

What about rookies one year later? Last season's rookie crop included Katie Baugh (30 points then, 330 now) and Kaleb Caron-Martin (20 then, 220 now). By the way, Katie's 330 is more than any DBQ quizzer has scored in one month since October 2005, fourteen years ago.

STEERING COMMITTEE

The DBQ Steering Committee will be meeting at 8:00 p.m. on January 12, 2020 by telephone conference. Participating churches and organizations are welcome to have a representative join in.

October Quiz Highlights

Marimont RefreshUrMemory-170 SPN You Need Milk-20 CP Strangers and Exiles-10 Round 1, Room 1, question 1 and we had our first rookie score of the season as Rebekah Catanzaro put Marimont on the board. Starting her run to Quizzer of the Month and first in the individual ranks, Katie Baugh scored three in a row to freeze without error. Back in on a toss-up, Katie scored again followed by Rebekah's second score. In on another toss-up, Katie scored yet again to push Marimont's lead to an insurmountable 150 points going into question 10. Destiny Lloyd got that one for CrossPoint and Rachel George scored on 14 for St Paul, setting up a showdown for second place. CrossPoint got the jump but not the answer, and Katie won her third toss-up to end the quiz.

♥ Double-Edged Sword-100 Marimont RefreshUrMemory-50 LP Preprd 2 Give a Defense-80 Lake Pointe's Sophia Fike froze without error on question 7. Then Marimont's Katie Baugh froze on question 8. And then Heart's Kaleb Caron-Martin froze without error on question 12. The score then was an ever-so-close 70-60-70. With each team's leader frozen, five quizzers remained eligible to jump, and four of them were rookies. Erin Yonker scored to give Lake Pointe the lead going into question 15, but all three positions were still up for grabs. Errors led to a free question to Heart, taken by Kaleb to set up a tie-breaker with Lake Pointe for the win. The tie-breaker was taken by Heart rookie Adeline Sanchez to claim a come-from-behind victory with her very first score.

♥ Bodies are Burned-20 LP Belong to a Diff. Tribe-10 Marimont RefreshUrMemory Marimont bounced back from its second-quiz third-place finish with a near reprise of its first quiz. Rookie Rebekah Catanzaro scored on question 1, followed by Katie Baugh freezing without error and picking up three toss-ups to clinch the quiz, with the score 0-0-150 going into question 12. Cordelia Fike got a score to move Lake Pointe into second. A Heart error and Lake Pointe's fourth team error gave Katie a freebie for a 140-point individual total in the quiz. Lydia Hatfield scored on question 15 to get Heart on the board at the last moment with just enough for second place.

LP Belong to a Diff. Tribe

CP Strangers and Exiles-20 ♥ Double-Edged Sword-100 ♥ God the Builder-130 Kaleb Caron-Martin froze without error to spot Double-Edged Sword a 70-point lead. Owen Parker scored to get God the Builder on the board. Kaleb got a freebie followed by rookie Ashton Brown's first score ever and the Sword had an 80-point lead. Owen scored twice to freeze and cut the lead to 40. Destiny Lloyd scored for CrossPoint and question 13 was passed, so the Builders were in a spot of needing both the remaining questions. Jumping into action at that point was Builder's Sam Hatfield, first getting the tie and then the tie-breaker for the team win and for a frozen chair without error. For all three, Sam was able to answer correctly with one word: "Jesus". 🌟

The 2019 GLRT Champions

All Stars 8, 7, 4, 2 and 1

All Stars 10, 9, 6, 5 and 3

None of the Detroit groups had four quizzers going to Great Lakes, so to make four-person teams everyone had to work together. Two Lake Pointe quizzers joined three from Heart to form DBQ We Are His House. Another Lake Pointe quizzier joined the St. Paul team to form DBQ Far Superior. And a CrossPoint quizzier joined the Marimont team to form DBQ Refresh Ur Memory.

The four starters for House were ranked 2 through 5 in the DBQ standings after the November quiz a week earlier, and they were out to prove that they could work together and not against each other. By and large, that worked out well and they, along with their designated sub, put up some record-breaking numbers, averaging 265 points per quiz as they went undefeated through the morning preliminaries.

The high point for House was their 380 points in quiz 3. The other two teams scored only once, on a toss-up following the only error made by House. The first three questions gave House its first bonus as they were answered by three different quizzers: Cordelia Fike, Sophia Fike and Kaleb Caron-Martin. Its second and third bonuses came when Owen Parker got his first jump and then quizzed out without error, bringing in teammate #5 Curtis Parker. The fourth bonus came when Sophia quizzed out without error. The fifth came when Curtis got his first of two correct answers. And the sixth and last bonus came when Cordelia was the third to quiz out without error.

Starting the playoffs, PBQ 1 tried to beat House with speed, and House struggled trying to respond with equal speed. Pittsburgh scored on questions 1 and 3 while House took errors on questions 2 and 4. But Pittsburgh could not maintain accuracy either. By question 13 the score was 30–40–20, as House had 4 errors, Pittsburgh had 3, and Crosspointe had two freebies. Going into question 19, the score was 60–60–40. At that point, Daniel Brown, the tournament top quizzier, got his fourth score, giving Pittsburgh a 20-point lead going into the last question but completing his quizout. On question 20, Kaleb got his first jump and answer of the quiz for a team bonus that vaulted House into the win without a tie-breaker.

PBQ 1 was undefeated except for the two times it faced House, but in the second playoff quiz it lost to Crosspointe. For its third chance to get into the Finals, it had to face the other two DBQ teams and that match went down to the wire. The lead switched back and forth between Pittsburgh and Refresh Ur Memory, as Katie Baugh quizzed out and Destiny Lloyd scored. Down 20 going into question 19, rookie Rebekah Catanzaro scored for a team bonus and a 10-point lead. But Pittsburgh got question 20 for the win and the third spot in the Finals.

In the Finals, House tried to initiate a speed approach and had errors on questions 1 and 5. By then, the score was 20–20–20. PBQ 1 broke that early tie on question 6, but then House settled into a groove and ran off 250 consecutive points that included bonuses when Kaleb scored, Cordelia quizzed out without error, Sophia scored and “super sub” Curtis scored. The remaining places were on the line on question 20, and Pittsburgh got that to claim second.

DBQ We Are His House–270, Crosspointe–20, PBQ 1– 50
